

OTTERY COMMUNITY THEATRE

NEWSLETTER

September 2007

Foreword

Lots of apologies! Firstly, because this newsletter is so late: various changes led to my having nothing to put in it until now – so here it is. Also, apologies if you have tried to access the website over the Summer and found either a “Page not found” message or a link to a gambling site! There has been a problem but Tom is working on getting a new improved site up and running: watch this space.

Diary

October 11th – 13th

“Foresight” See poster for details.

November 1st 7.00 p.m.
3rd

A.G.M. and panto launch at the Salston Manor Hotel.
Ottery Carnival – OCT Walking entry?

A.G.M.

Date and venue above. We are sorry that we have had to delay it so much, but with so many involved in Foresight (and some of those also involved in We Will Rock You the following week) this is the earliest date which was convenient. We will get the business done as quickly as possible, take a break for light refreshments, and then the pantomime will be launched with a reading of some scenes. See below for further details of the pantomime. At the time of going to press it appears that all or most of the officers are willing to continue in their posts, although anyone should feel free to stand for an officer’s post if they wish. Posts are: Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary (we currently have two, one for minutes and one for everything else), Treasurer. On the other hand, several ordinary members are standing down, so we will need some new blood. If you wish to stand, let Laurie Palmer or Ali Owen know beforehand, please, and make sure you have someone to propose and second you. We are not including a paper form for this this year, as no-one ever uses them! Please don’t propose another member without speaking to them to make sure they are willing. Committee meetings are roughly once a month. Please also let Ali or Laurie know if you are unable to attend but wish to stay involved.

Frankie Styne in Pantoland

Is our pantomime for 2008, written by Laurie Palmer. Because of the late start, we will begin rehearsals as soon as possible after the A.G.M., probably the following week. If you are unable to attend the A.G.M. and panto launch, it is very important that you let Laurie or Ali know if you want to take part.

Foresight

I have included a poster on the back of this newsletter for you to display, and to give you the details so that you can come and see it. Tickets are going fast, so don’t dither for too long; this will be a unique theatrical event so don’t miss it!

Ottery Carnival

We would like to enter a walking group this year to publicise the pantomime. Grace Briggs has kindly offered to organise it, but I forgot to get her new phone number, so please let me or Laurie know if you wish to take part, and we’ll pass it on to her.
